l'DITOR TRUE NORTHERNER:

i had supposed the little article over my eng nature in your issue of January 17th had called out all the venom that was interesting to the public, and thought to drop the subject, as I do not like to gratify those who seem to be so sadly in want of somebody or something to fight; and for want of foemen worthy of their steel, they imitate the valorous Don Quixote, and charge, sword in hand, upon an unoffendtog wind-mill, or throw paper-wads at the tree toads; but your last issue contains an article over the signature of "Brother" that claims a tittle attention. He is right in saving that at first it was a little fire. It was a very little fire. But some "smart fellers" kept blowing it until it bid fair to become quits a flame. But this Brother is not only unfortunate in disagreeing with us in our opinions, but has made the mistake of putting on a coat that was cut and made for another man! However, he does not complem of the fit, with the exception of one button. The suffrage button was stamped "no," and should have been "yes." That it tits bun as well as it does, is not the fault of

Now, if the Prother will read that offensive article over again, carefully, he will see that the Brother who made the remark in meeting, and the one outside, were two distinct individuals. Furthermore, the man outside is no myth but ventable flesh and bones; lives, and breathes. "and thinks he is a christian." We are glad indeed if the Brother has no ill-will towards us, and only writes in self-defense; but would it not be as well to wait until war is declared before unlimbering his artillery? He also says that he has hved long enough to have a little charity for those disagreeing with him. If that is true, it is a matter of much rejoicing. He is sorry that he made us make such a tremendous leap backwards, landing upon the grave of the old slavery question, and proceeding to the up the old skeleton and rattle its dry bones in our midst again. (Ugh! what a ghoulish picture to be sure). Then asks if it would not be a good idea for us to report in regard to the voting in Louisiana and Florids in the late presidential elections? If we should report on said elections, we would say for one item, that if elavery is really dead, it takes but a very small circle and a very short seance to bring back its spirit, and whenever or wherever said spirit makes its advent, it betrays no evidence of being purified by purgatorial fires. but cuts up its bloody antics with as much stantial, Well Made gusto as ever, as reports on those elections already on record abundantly show. Then he assumes that we belong to the gentler sex, and proceeds to make a display of his charity-and Chenp at $7.00. Prayer may become a mighty engine of evil, as when the Ieraelites prayed for a king, God granted their prayer, but they found when too late that they had invoked a curse and not a blessing. # A NEW STEM WINDER! PRICE $8.00. Pure Abyssinian Gold. But Recently Discovered, and the best imitation

With the New Year come new styles and inventions. Prominent among these ranks our new Stem Winding Watch, named "Old 1878." Although heretofore we have always handled THE BEST watch of each kind that it was possible to get, yet it has been impossible to get a low-priced watch, with the stemwinding attachment, that could be relied upon for time, and have a finished appearence. This seems to have been accomplished by the inventor of "Old 1878." We need only refer you to the cut given in connection with this, which is an exact imitation of it, and say that it is perfect in every way. The works are covered with a heavy plate glass cap, then this is covered with a hunting case. The front or face is a plate glass cap or crystal ½ of an inch thick, set in a heavy rim one-half an inch in width, making it almost impossible to injure the watch.

It is fitted especially for Railroad, farm and shop uses, where dust and dirt are liable to get in on opening. As the cases fit very closely, and being a stem-winder and open dial, it need never be opened. If you need a watch, try this. It is entirely new and novel. You can rely on it for time. You will be the only one in your neighborhood having such a watch. It looks exactly like gold and will save its cost in a few years, by saving what you would have to pay for repairs on an ordinary watch. With the New Year come new styles and inven-
